CHRISTMAS.

Its Observance in the City. Yesterday the citizens of New-York generally enloyed a merry Christmas. The weather, though oudy, was calm and pleasant, reminding us of the " alver lining behind the cloud." In many of car charitable institutions and hospitals, ample and sumptuous provision was made for the entertainment of the immates, illustrating afresh the beautiful lesgon that it is "more blessed to give than to receive." Our churches were thronged with wcrehipers, and the various places of amusement were well patronfzed, while the taverns and liquor greceries were less frequented than usual. Young America, with characteristic precocity, made a noise in the world by " blowing his own horn." Although the shore were closed the streets presented a lively appearance, being filled with well-dressed ladies and gentlemen, forming a grand panorama of life and beauty. At the New-England Rooms the ladies gave a good dinner to the sick and wounded soldiers.

At Bedloo's Island, the Ladies' Hospital and several other hospitals where our suffering soldiers are under medical and surgical treatment a Christmas dinner was given to them by their patriotic friends. At the institution for the children of deceased and disabled soldiers a donation visit was made. A pleasant entertainment for the little folks was held Eighth avenue. Christmas day was duly celebrated they are receiving due encouragement. Greene-street Chapel, and Beekman Hill, and Memorial Church the Sabhain-School scholars were made happy by the distribution of gifts. The Howard Mission and Home for Little Wanderers was visited by Santa Claus. The good was visited by Santa Claus. The good people of take their Christmas dinners to-day.

At 31 o'clock Solemn Vespers were held by Fathers Starrs, McGuire, and Woods, Father Mc-Vierney being Master of Ceremonies. The vestments used for the occasion were but recently imseen in America. The church was illuminated by pearly two hundred lights.

CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS.

Christmas Day is a great holiday with the Randall's Island boys, who for weeks, we may say, look forward to its advers with feelings of deligits, mean-while indulging in unlimitable calculations as to what presents they will receive at the hands of their guardians, the Commissioners of Charities and Corrections. Yesterday morning the boys were up with the dawn, and, after their usual matutinal exercises. assembled at 11 o'clock in the chapel, where they were greeted with a "Mergy Christmas!" by Com-roads in the Holy Land, but the earne tregular, meadering mule paths stretch over the mountain sides that were traveled by patriarchs and apostles of old. We started early to ascend Mount Olivet, to behold the sun gild the raisancts and towers of the devoted city, from the place where memory, ctired by a thousand associations, should exalt the nexts as well as the eye to the inspiration and beauty of the scene. Well is the voyager repaid for long travels, horrid roads; antediturism cockery, squalld companionship, and the import nities of begging, thiering Arabs. Well would it have report you, O begging, thieving Arabs. Well would it have reprid you, O begging, thieving Arabs. Well would it have reprid you, O thou man of commerce and the crucible, and well neight you have been reminded of your own City of Now-Yerk-for here, painted upon a board nailed against one of the huge anchor olive trees under which the sacred martyrs toiled for the sine of world, eighteen hundred years ago, were those familiar figures—'A.T. 1800.
